

Contact:

Maria Schaszberger
Direct: (717) 358-2027
Evening: (717) 385-8555

For Immediate Release

Water Street Ministries announces staff promotions

Lancaster, PA --- April 7, 2009 --- Water Street Ministries, a Lancaster-based ministry to the poor, promoted Scooter Haase to vice president of operations and executive director of Water Street Mission, a division of Water Street Ministries that cares for the homeless in Lancaster County. He left the business sector to join Water Street Ministries in 2007, serving as Director of Operations. He is a graduate of Eastern New Mexico University and earned both a Master's degree in Astrophysics and a Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Maine.

Steve Brubaker was promoted to Chief Vision Officer for Water Street Ministries. His responsibilities will include ensuring alignment of values, vision and mission throughout the organization. Steve joined Water Street in 1996 after serving in a pastoral role in a local church. Most recently, Brubaker served as Director of Residential Ministries for Water Street Mission, a division of Water Street Ministries. He has a bachelor's degree in Christian Education from Lancaster Bible College and a master's degree in Counselor Education from Millersville University.

About Water Street Ministries

For 104 years, Water Street Ministries has been providing services to individuals living in poverty throughout South-Central and South-East PA. In response to community needs, Water Street Ministries has grown to include Lydia Center, Teen Haven, Water Street Health Services, Water Street Mission and Wonder Club Early Learning Centers.

###